Notes - e.g. Rationale for lend, what benefit will it provide, new contracts, any further info

This is a delivery company that subcontract for Parcelforce, DPD and Fed Ex. They currently have 47 drivers.

Funding is required for working capital. The large companies that they work with can be slow to pay invoices. Rutendo has to pay his drivers before he receives payment from his clients. This funding will bridge this gap.

Rutendo is currently renting his residential property. He had personal debt from years ago that he recently cleared. Other than that, his personal credit is clean.

I have attached their last set of filed accounts and 6 months business bank statements.
