Care support company that specialises in support care for experienced young people and unaccompanied Asylum seeking children. They provide accommodation, financial support, transport, and care for these individuals. They find funds from the government as many of their young people are migrants through government back schemes. They require funding for purchasing more accommodation so they can provide more space for their individuals.

His personal property is worth £1.1mil and he also owns 1,2,3 The Oaks, WA4 4EE which are worth £2.5m
