Company Information

Quintain Analytics (UK) Limited, established in 2016 by Stephen Carney and John Norris, capitalises on their four decades of experience in capital markets to provide analytics and technology solutions. Their expertise lies in studying interactions between investment management professionals and research providers, enabling them to identify and articulate value-generating opportunities. Renowned capital markets firms rely on Quintain Analytics (UK) Limited to harness unstructured data, unlocking meaningful insights and engagement value. As a dynamic and growing company, they seek data scientists and IT professionals with machine learning or AI expertise to join their team.

Company Financials

In it's latest financial year, QUINTAIN ANALYTICS (UK) LIMITED has grown turnover to £888,653.

Funding Rationale

The loan amount of £50,000 will be used to hire data scientists and IT professionals with machine learning or AI expertise to support ongoing large contracts, aiding Quintain Analytics (UK) Limited in expanding its operations and meeting the demands of its growing client base. This strategic investment in human capital will enhance the company's capacity to deliver high-quality services, ultimately driving revenue growth and profitability.
